JAMES DICK.

Mr. GREEN,

AS the Papists have craftily attacked to their Interest some Gentlemen, who are Dissenters from the Church of England, under the Notion of their being subject to the Penalties of several Acts of Parliament in Force, within this Province, whereas in Fact, the Suggestion is in itself false; and it must be through Inadvertency or want of Attention, that any of his Majesty's Subjects within this Province dissenting from the Church of England, give Ear or Credit to such Allegations.

If you will please to give this Room in your next Gazette, to inform these worthy Subjects, that in the Body of Laws of this Province, (Page 48) they will find an Act, declaring several Acts of Parliament made in the Kingdom of England to be in Force, within this Province; and in which Act they see that the Act commonly called the Toleration Act, made in the first Year of the Reign of King WILLIAM and Queen MARY, Entituled, An Act for exempting their Majesties Protestant Subjects, dissenting from the Church of England, from the Penalties of certain Laws; is in full Force within this Province; whereby, and other subsequent Acts of Parliament, they are secured against the Effect of the Penal Statutes, with which their artful Adversaries would endeavour to frighten them.

I am,

Yours and their Friend and Well wisher,

A. B.

November 22, 1751.
